Question 1: You indicated in the survey that you go to coffee shops. Tell me about the cafes or coffee houses in your community.

Answer:
Yeah, there are some coffee spots around here. One is a cozy place with comfy chairs, and they play soft music. Another is more like a grab-and-go spot with quick service. They have all kinds of coffee, from plain to fancy. It's nice to have these spots for a good cup of coffee and a chill atmosphere.

Question 2: What do you normally do when you go to coffee shops? Are there meetings or gatherings there? Tell me what you like to do.

Answer:
I go to coffee shops to have coffee and maybe a snack. I like to relax, read, or work on my computer. Sometimes, people have meetings or just talk with friends. It's a nice and comfy place to chill and enjoy coffee.

Question 3: Tell me about a memorable incident that happened at a coffee shop.
What happened?
Who was involved?
Tell me everything about that incident from beginning to end.

Answer:
Once at a coffee shop, they mixed up my order. I asked for a latte, but they gave me a caramel macchiato. Turns out, someone else got my latte by mistake too. It became a funny moment, and we all left with a smile.

Question 4: Talk about the first coffee shop you went to.
What was special about that place?
What do you remember the most?

Answer:
The first coffee shop I went to was near my college. It had comfy chairs. The barista was really nice, and I was a bit nervous ordering. The best part was the first sip of the coffee – it felt really good. I remember the cozy feeling and the tasty coffee, making it a special place for me.
