Viet Nam is a nice country with different landscapes. There are mountains, plains, and a long coast by the South China Sea. We have pretty places like terraced rice fields in the north and the Mekong Delta in the south. Rivers like the Red River and Mekong River are important for farming. Our country has many beautiful natural spots.

Describe that place in detail.
What was your memory of that place?

Answer:
One place I loved as a kid in Viet Nam was a park near my house. It had flowers and a playground. I played with friends, swung on the swings, and climbed on the jungle gym. On weekends, my family and I sat on benches. The park felt calm, and the memories of fun and laughter with loved ones make it special.

Once, I went to a beautiful beach in my country. The sand was soft, and the water sparkled in the sun. I played in the waves, collected seashells, and built sandcastles. The sound of the ocean and the fresh sea breeze made the day special. It was a simple but unforgettable time enjoying the beauty of nature in my own country.

Perhaps it was a special place or an important landmark.

When I was little, I remember visiting a big, green park in my country. There were tall trees and a wide playground. I loved playing on the swings and slides.
