Question 1: Tell me about the furniture you have in your home.
Is there a piece of furniture that is your favorite?

Answer:
In my home, I have a cozy sofa, a dining table with chairs, and a soft bed. My favorite piece of furniture is the comfortable sofa. It's where I relax, watch TV, and sometimes take a nap. The cushions are soft, and it feels like a warm hug. I like to spend time there, especially on lazy weekends.

Question 2: Tell me about how you use your furniture on a typical day. What kinds of things do you do with your furniture?

Answer:
On a regular day, I use my furniture in different ways. In the morning, I sit at the dining table to have breakfast, and later, I work or study there. In the living room, I relax on the sofa, read books, or watch TV. At night, I sleep on my comfy bed. Each piece serves a specific purpose, making my daily routine comfortable and convenient.

Question 3: Tell me about the furniture you had at home when you were a child.
Was there anything different from the furniture that you use today?

Answer:
As a kid, my home had basic furniture—sofa, dining table, and a little bed. Now I've got more, like a work desk and a bigger bed. But I cherish the simple joy of those childhood pieces.

Question 4: Tell me about a time when you had a problem with your furniture.
Perhaps it could have gotten damaged for some reason.
Tell me what exactly happened and how you solved the problem.

Answer:
Once, my table wobbled a lot. It made doing homework tricky. I put some cardboard under a leg to steady it. Simple fix, problem solved!
