Question 1: What kinds of TV programs do you like to watch? Why do you like to watch those programs?

Answer:
I like watching different things on TV. Action films are exciting, documentaries teach me stuff, and crime dramas have interesting stories. It's nice to have different options depending on what I feel like watching.

Question 2: When do you watch TV most often?
Where do you watch it?
Whom do you watch with?
Plus, what do you do while watching TV?

Answer:
I usually watch TV in the evening after work. I watch it in the living room on the couch. Sometimes, I watch with my family, and other times, I enjoy it alone. While watching, I often relax and unwind, maybe have a snack or chat with family members during breaks.

Question 3: What were TV programs like when you were young?
How are they different now?
Tell me about how TV programs have changed over the years.

Answer:
When I was young, TV was simpler with fewer channels. Cartoons were a big thing. Now, there are more channels, streaming, and diverse content. People can watch what they want when they want. It's a big change from the limited options we had before.
