The last time I went to Song Cau Park was last Saturday with my family. We played on swings and slides, walked around, and I picked some flowers. We sat on the grass to eat snacks. I saw families having picnics, and we sat on a bench. It was a fun and relaxing day. When it got dark, we went home. I really liked our time at Song Cau Park!

I started going to parks when I was a kid because my parents took me to play. Now, I still go because parks are fun and relaxing. I like the fresh air and the chance to play or just hang out. Parks are a nice break from regular days, and I always feel happy after being there.

Question 5: Tell me about a memorable experience you had at a park. Maybe there was a special event, or maybe something unexpected happened. Begin by giving me some background about when and where it was. And then, give me all the details about what happened.

Answer:
One time at Song Cau Park in the summer, my family and I had a picnic. While we were eating, there was a surprise concert with a live band nearby. People gathered around, and we enjoyed the music. Some started dancing on the grass, and it made the park so lively. After the concert, we walked around. It was a super fun and unexpected day at Song Cau Park!
