Question 1: I’d like to give you a situation and ask you to act it out.
You are at a clothing store and need to get some clothes.
Ask three or four questions about the clothes you would like to buy.

Answer:
Hi there! I'm looking for a new outfit, and I have a few questions.
First, do you have this shirt in blue?
I really like the style. Also, are there any sales or discounts going on right now? I'm trying to stick to a budget. Oh, and do you have fitting rooms where I can try on these pants? I want to make sure they fit well before I decide. Lastly, do you accept credit cards, or is it cash only? Thanks so much for your help

Question 2: I’m sorry, but there is a problem that I need you to resolve. The clothes you have ordered have arrived, but one of the shirts has a problem.
Call the clothing store and explain the problem.
Give two to three alternatives to solve the problem.

Answer:
Hello, this is Phuong. I recently received an order from your store, but unfortunately, one of the shirts has an issue. It seems to have a stain. I was wondering if I could exchange it for a new one. Is that possible? If not, could I get a refund or a store credit? I really like your products and want to resolve this matter. Thank you.

Question 3: That’s the end of the situation.
Have you ever been unhappy with something that you had bought or some service you had received?
What was the problem?
How did you deal with the situation?
Tell me everything in detail.

Answer:
Yeah, I once bought a pair of shoes online, and when they arrived, they were the wrong size. I was pretty unhappy about it. I contacted customer service, explained the situation, and they were really helpful. They arranged a return, and I got the right size sent to me. It took a bit of time, but overall, it was a good resolution to the problem
