Question 1: I’d like to give you a situation and ask you to act it out.
You are at a store and you see a piece of furniture that you like.
Go to the clerk and ask three or four questions about the furniture you want to buy.

Answer:
Hey, excuse me! I'm interested in this piece of furniture. How much does it cost? Also, does it come in other colors or just this one? Is there any warranty included? And, when could it be delivered if I decide to buy it? Thanks!

Question 2: I’m sorry, but there is a problem that I need you to resolve. When you receive the furniture at home, there is a serious problem with it.
Call the store, explain the situation and offer two to three alternatives to solve the problem.

Answer:
Hello, I got the furniture I ordered, but there's a big problem with it. I'm a bit worried. It looks damaged. Can we figure out how to fix this? One idea could be sending someone to repair it at my place. Or maybe we could exchange it for a new one? I'm open to suggestions. Just want to make sure we can sort this out. Thanks

Question 3: That’s the end of the situation.
Have you ever bought furniture but had a problem when you got it?
What was the problem and how did you deal with the situation?

Answer:
One time, I got a new table, and there was a scratch on the top. It was a bit disappointing, you know? So, I took pictures of it and emailed the store. They apologized and sent a replacement table. It took a bit of time, but in the end, I got a good table without any scratches. They were pretty helpful about it.

Good luck For Your Exam!
