Question 1: I’d like to give you a situation and ask you to act it out.
You are planning on going on a trip to a country where your friend lives.
Call your friend and ask about the geography there.
And then, ask two or three questions regarding your travel plans.

Answer:
Hey, it's me! I'm thinking of visiting your country. Can you tell me about the geography there? Are there mountains or cool places to explore? Also, any advice for my travel plans, like must-see spots or things to avoid? Let me know, excited to plan!

Question 2: I’m sorry, but there is a problem that I need you to resolve.
You cannot go on the trip because of some reason.
Call your friend and explain the situation.
Give two to three alternatives.

Answer:
Hey, I've hit a snag and can't make it on our trip. Something came up. I'm really bummed, but I was thinking, maybe we could plan for another time? What do you think? Or if that doesn't work, any chance I could get your recommendations for things to do locally? Let's figure this out together.

Question 3: That’s the end of the situation.
Have you ever been on a trip to another country?
How was the geography there different from your country’s geography?

Answer:
Yeah, I went on a trip to another country once. The geography was totally different. There were big mountains and beautiful beaches, unlike my home. It was amazing to see such diverse landscapes in one place
