Question 1: I’d like to give you a situation and ask you to act it out.
You see a sign at your favorite store that says that they are having a big sale.
Go to the store and ask three or four questions to get as much information as possible about the sale.

Answer:
Hey there, I noticed your store has a big sale going on. Can you tell me what items are included? How long will the sale last? Any special discounts or deals? And, do I need a membership for extra savings?

Question 2: I’m sorry, but there is a problem that I need you to resolve. Once you get home with an item you bought, you realize that the item is damaged.
Call the store and explain the situation and state what you want to do to resolve the situation.

Hi, I just bought something from your store and unfortunately, it's damaged. I was wondering if I could exchange it for a new one or get a refund. Can you guide me on the process and let me know what options are available? Thanks.

Question 3: That’s the end of the situation.
Have you ever bought something that did not work or was damaged?
Tell me about the item you bought that did not function properly or was damaged.
Explain what the item was, what was wrong with it and what you did to resolve the situation.

Answer:
Certainly! I once bought a phone that had issues with the speaker. The sound was distorted, and sometimes it didn't work at all. I contacted the store, explained the situation, and they replaced it with a new one.
