Question 1: I’d like to give you a situation and ask you to act it out. You need to buy a train ticket to go visit your friend this weekend. Go to the ticket counter at the train station and ask three or four questions to get the information you need to book a ticket.

Answer:
Hi, I want a train ticket to see my friend this weekend. I'm going to Ha Noi. When does the train leave on Saturday? I like the 1 PM one. How much for a ticket? Just one way for now. Can I pay with my card? Thanks a bunch!

Question 2: I’m sorry, but there is a problem that I need you to resolve. When you get to the train station, you miss your train and will be late to meet your friend.
Call your friend, explain your situation and offer some alternatives.

Answer:
Hey, it's me. I'm really sorry, but I missed my train, and I'll be running late. The next one is in an hour. Do you mind waiting, or should we consider another plan? Maybe we could meet at a slightly different time. Let me know what works best for you, and again, sorry for the hiccup!

Question 3: That’s the end of the situation.
Have you ever traveled somewhere but missed a bus, a train or a plane?
Tell me about when you had difficulty getting to your destination.
Start by telling me where you were going and what exactly happened.
And then, tell me what you had to do to get to your destination.

Answer:
Yeah, once I was heading to a friend's wedding. I was catching a plane, but crazy traffic made me miss it. I was so stressed! I had to book a new flight, ended up taking a train, and arrived just in time for the ceremony.

Good luck For Your Exam!
